About Plays and Players By BIDE DUDLEY,

an evidence of the Govern-ment's gratitude for her work in providing entertainment for the soldiers at Governor's Island, Mrs. achel Frohman Davison, a sister of Daniel Frohman and the late Charles nan, has been given a bronze "Mother Davison," as she is own to thousands of the boys in the service, has been untiring in her offorts to make things more pleasant for the youths in khaki. At least once a week, and often two or three times in that space of time, she has recruited from the best talent the New York stage affords little companies of actors to go to Governor's Island and provide entertainment. Her son, Dan, is now with the forces in France and he writes her frequently that he meets soldiers over there who tell him what a good friend "Mother Davison" is to the army.

PRESIDENT SEES A PLAY.

Wagenhals & Kemper's new war comegy, "Pack Up Your Trousles," by George C. Hazefton, starring Sergt. Arthur Guy Empey and Rose Stahl, opened an engagement at the National Theatre, Washington, last night before President and Mrs. Wilson and several members of the President's Cabinet. The production is due in New York early next month.

BY WAY OF DIVERSION.

The auto owner, out to ride, looks happy, smug and satisfied; and L who have to walk, get pretty mad and curse my stars because I candot own some cars. Oh, I'm a jealeus gawk. I tell myself the world's all wrong, and fate I batter good and strong. To me life seems so blue. Oh, reader of this mournful spiel, parhaps you know just how I feel. You may have felt so too. But we should anart and kiek at livek! Remember, friend, we're never stuck for gasoline and tires. We have no chauffeurs we must pay. Garage bills never come our way as ev'ry month expires. We om? see the pleasant side of Mr. Auto Owner's ride. So let's not be so swift. If we but knew it all we'd choose to walk, perhaps. We might refuse to take one as a gift. BY WAY OF DIVERSION.

YOUTHFUL TRAINING. N amused expression fitted over the features of Senator Willtam E. Borah of Idaho when the talk turned to modern dances. He said he was reminded of an incident in a metropolitan city. Pretty Miss Smith was shopping Pretty Miss Smith was shopping one afternoon when she met sweetsome Miss Jones, whom she had long known and liked.

"Speaking of the days when we went to the boarding school, Mary," remarked Miss Jones, "do you remember how Bessle could stand on her head, to the great envy of us all?"

"I certainly do, dear," reflectively answered Miss Smith, "but what of it?"

"Nothing," was the rejoinder of Miss Jones, "except that Bessie is now easily the best tango dancer in our set."—Boston Record.
